Since I've grown up and started to go to school I'm never late. Ma says it's because I'm always on the go. I told the teacher the other day about the good care Ma took of us and I also told her about this drug store.

SPECIAL EXPERT

In revealing defects in eyes. If your eyes trouble you or your glasses don't suit you, consult me, I may be able to do for you what medicine cannot do.

The majority of people have defective sight. A great number of people suffer from continuous pains in the head and eyes, from which they get no relief by taking drugs or medicine. In a majority of cases one or both eyes fail to perform their proper function of seeing. Every person suffering that way should have their eyes examined and scientifically tested.

More nervous diseases are cured by scientific and properly fitted glasses than by drugs.

CORRECTLY FITTED GLASSES ARE A PERMANENT PLEASURE.

People Realizing They Make Money by Trading at Home.

There seems an unusual impetus to business in Englewood within the past month, due largely to the efforts the merchants are making to educate the people to the fact that they offer better bargains of better goods at better prices than the alleged bargain stores of the "loop."

Our merchants are a thrifty lot, have lower rents, save clerk hire and reduce "overhead" expenses to a minimum, and as they can buy as cheap as any other dealer, they are enabled to sell at lower prices, and are all particularly anxious to build up a local trade, hence will do more for their customers than merchants who are strangers to their trade. One principle governs with Englewood dealers, that is to give absolute satisfaction, and any transaction that is not right they will make right. Patronize home merchants; give them a chance and they will make good.

On account of an unusual rush of local news matter this week our serial story will be omitted.

The annual convention of Cook county W. C. T. U. will be held in Willard hall, Monroe St., near La Salle St., Monday and Tuesday, October 1 and 2. The morning sessions will begin at ten o'clock and the afternoon sessions at one o'clock. An excellent program has been prepared.

The Garnet club will hold their annual installation of officers at the home of Mrs. W. Clarence Oxnam, 2044 103rd St., Thursday, October 4. Instead of their annual luncheon, which is always an affair in connection with their installation and generally held in the city, will in its place be substituted a picnic luncheon. The usual amount spent will be used for war work. This is surely commendable and will no doubt be observed in like manner by other clubs throughout the year.

Crippled Beggars Infest Our Streets.

It looks as if a regular band of more or less afflicted men find easy money in Englewood districts, and 30 were counted last Saturday, either seated dejectedly on the cold sidewalks or appealing for aid from points of vantage of all sorts. Several women were noticed among the number, and while we believe in charity, we cannot help but think this is an imposition. If these people are really deserving, and many are not, comfortable homes are provided for them at Oak Forest, and they should not be allowed to beg or solicit on the streets, where their pitiable condition is unnecessarily exposed. It is a fact that many of these beggars make a pretense of selling pencils, gums or knick-knacks, but few take the articles thus offered. Others squander the money they get in dissipation. We have an almost luxurious home for the needy, and they are properly cared for in it, and they should be taken there. There are cases where a successful beggar even takes care of a husky family or others, who depend upon them for support; and almost always this public begging is unnecessary. It is up to the police to stop it.

Announcement of interest to many young people in Englewood is that of the marriage of Miss Ruth Ford, daughter of Mrs. Mary Ford of Pittsburgh, Pa., to Mr. Raymond Victor Shepler, which occurred July 4 at Calgary, Alberta, Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Shepler are residing at Millerfield, Alberta, Canada. Mrs. Ford and her two daughters, Ruth and Jessie, formerly resided in Englewood. At the present time the latter is visiting her sister in the above named town.

There Are Different Kinds of Traitors.

Any person that gives aid or comfort to the enemy is a traitor, and the many ways open to do either of these is most diversified. We are experiencing about all of them now, from the fellow who blows up a munition factory to the one who discourages enlistment or encourages slackers. One kind are those who tell terribly exaggerated stories of the war fatalities. God knows it is bad enough, but one crazy correspondent in a daily paper says one out of five soldiers are killed. The facts, as gleaned by close statisticians, are that not one in twelve in all branches of the service during the entire duration of the war, has ever been injured, and the percentage of those injured fatally is one in every 116. The meanest gossip we know of is the one who seeks to breed fear and terror in the minds of the mothers and wives whose dear ones have been called to the front, and there are many of them. There are actuary tables for war as well as peace, and when the insurance risk is only $8 per $1,000 per annum, it may be readily figured that it is estimated that less than one to every 1,400 recruited will be wounded, and less than one of every 116 of these will be killed. Sherman's definition of war was forceful, and more or less true, but there is no reason to think that every man that is called will be killed, and we may reasonably hope to have a very large majority of our boys home with us again, and may God speed the day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Allmon of Salem, Ill., are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. J. Wimsey of 351 Englewood Ave.

The stone engravers have been doing wonders with the caps and door tops of the new Cunningham building at Normal Blvd. and Englewood Ave. A handsome large American eagle spans with outstretched wings the entrance to the second floor, midway in the building. The mythological heads of the middle ages and the gargoyles of past centuries are carried out through the artistic work of the engravers. Work on the private chapel is progressing nicely, and the store rooms and second floor offices are almost ready for occupancy. Elmer Tyner, the agent, will be pleased to show anyone the rooms. His offices are at 344 63rd St. Telephone Wentworth 57.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF ENGLEWOOD.
64th St. and Yale Ave.
Pastor, Rev. Willard H. Robinson, D. D.
6530 Lafayette Ave.

At Englewood Presbyterian church, Sunday morning at 10:30 Doctor Robinson will speak on "Weariness in Well-Doing." The danger for the nations of the allies is that they will become tired of the war and settle it too soon. The danger of those at the British war front is that the munition makers may weary, just a little too soon, of systematic and unremitting toil in keeping up explosive shells at the factories and sending them to the battlefields. Many a battle is lost for want of one hour more of stubborn fighting. The big stone block lies intact where just one more blow would have split it asunder at the point of cleavage. It is said the Germans came very near to capturing Paris in 1914, but failed for want of just a little more effort along a certain hard-fought line. It is a great psychologic point in generalship to fall upon the enemy "when he is weary." A thousand instances show how the man or the nation wins who can "stick to it" after others have grown weary and quit. It is that last plus quantity that tells the story. In the evening at 7:30 at the union service Doctor Fritsch will speak. The choir will be assisted by Mr. Thomas McGranahan.

WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 30

THE FORTY THIEVES

A BRAND NEW SHOW FULL OF NEW IDEAS
Great Cast of Stars 20-Classy Choristers-20

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

Jean Bedini's "Forty Thieves." One of the most pleasing events of the season at the Englewood theatre will be the appearance the coming week of the gay and sprightly "Forty Thieves," which is one of Jean Bedini's newest burlesque attractions now being presented to the theatre-going public. No attraction en route this season can claim better prestige than is possessed by this excellent company of entertainers, and the entertainment is full of entirely new features.

"Forty Thieves" is mounted in lavish style and furnishes a laugh every minute. There is a choice selection of musical numbers rendered by our famous Pickpocket chorus, each number being a gem of vocal beauty. There are a score of pretty girls in the chorus, and their dancing and singing are a revelation of sweetness, grace and beauty. Many vaudeville specialties are introduced in the different scenes.

The notable cast includes Charlie MacEnglish, comedian; Harry Jackson, the Hebrew pirate; Bert Walton, juvenile; Al Ricardo, versatile ventriloquist; Wilson Franklyn, Madden, the mad juggler; Josephine Younge, prima donna; May Myers, ingenue; Mollie Gilmore, dainty soubrette.

Many new and original features are introduced. The show is new, not only in name, but in novelty, attractiveness, costuming, scenic effects and last but not least, all the faces are new to the burlesque world.

Mollie Gilmore With "The Forty Thieves" Next Week.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

The Marlowe Hippodrome is out with an added number of attractions this week, and the patrons show their appreciation by crowded houses every evening. Little Mary Pickford's regular appearance weekly is greeted with warm approval. On next Monday she will appear in the one sure winner, "Madame Butterfly," the screen version of the prettiest operetta ever presented. Every Monday evening the Marlowe presents Mary, in addition to their other big bill of vaudeville. Another feature is the Style Revue, which will begin on Thursday evening, October 4, and continue each Thursday evening thereafter, in addition to the regular vaudeville show, and on Friday, the big joy night, and on Friday standard acts, six big "loop" attractions as well as four professional revue acts. On Thursday, October 4, they present Lowy & Thompson's style review, that was the great feature of Riverview Park. Thousands of dollars worth of evening costumes, the very latest and best in fashions, exhibited by beautiful living models. This is the most unique novelty introduced in years, and appeals especially to the ladies, who wish to see and inspect at leisure the most modern styles of gowns of the season. This is all in addition to the regular vaudeville attractions. The Marlowe is surely deserving of its name as the house of varieties, as every week sees some new attraction that the other houses follow but never head in. You are always safe to see a good show and be amused and entertained when you go to the Marlowe.

LINDEN PHOTODROME

Friday, Sept. 28—Roy Stewart in "The Devil Dodger." If you were a minister and wished to die, and had taunted death, only to live on while a dance-hall girl and a gambler drew cards to see who should control your life, he to kill and she to save, you would probably consider yourself in a startling predicament, yet this is only one of the experiences of the "Devil Dodger." Also the Burton Holmes Travel pictures and a good comedy.

Saturday, Sept. 29—Virginia Pearson in the great New York and London stage success, "Where False Tongues Speak." This is a story built around the problems and trials of a noble woman who finds her husband a worthless scamp and will see this pictures Saturday.

Sunday, Sept. 30.—William Desmond captures a society crook and lands a wife in "Flying Colors." In this picture Mr. Desmond appears as a happy-go-lucky youth who turns detective discovers some lost jewels and well, if you like a thrilling, sensational, full-of-action-heart interest and love story, be sure to come Sunday. Also the latest Keystone comedy, "She Needed a Doctor."

Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 1 and 2—"Souls Redeemed." All the leading organizations of thinking women have indorsed this production. The story is for the modern woman. It shows her in varied environments and in situations that perforce bring out and develop in her the nobility and fortitude that characterize the American mother and wife of yesterday, today and tomorrow. The cast is an all-star one including Walter Hampden, the man who created the role of the good samaritan in the "Servant in the House;" Marie Shotwell featured in "Enlighten Thy Daughter;" Sheldon Lewis, "The Iron Claw" and co-star in the "Exploits of Elaine;" Charlotte Ives co-star with E. H. Sothern in the "Man of Mystery" and now in the Morosco Broadway hit, "The Brat;" Harry Benham of the "Million Dollar Mystery," and many others. Also the funniest woman in the movies, Alice Howell, in "Balloonatics." We guarantee this to be the funniest comedy we have ever shown. On this date, owing to a ruling of the censor board, no children will be admitted.

Wednesday, Oct. 3—Madge Evans and Lew Fields in "The Corner Grocer" with a superb company in a screen version of the famous stage success, "The Corner Grocery." Needless to say the film is even better than the speaking drama which had a run of over 400 nights in New York city, and then the Bray Pictographs and other pictures.

EMPRESS THEATRE

"How do they do it at the price?" is the constant query of Empress theatre patrons. Every week and twice every week the entire bill is changed, and it is difficult to chose between them as to which is the best bill. Manager Harry Mitchell is up in his business, and as soon as a real headliner is discovered Harry goes gunning for it, and it is very seldom indeed that he does not get it. See the bill this week, and you will know what we mean when we say what a good show it is.

Mr. Mitchell's long acquaintance with the big men on all circuits enables him to catch them going and coming, East or West, and many open dates are booked for the Empress that the dollar houses would be glad to book. Hereafter the old policy of matinees daily will rule, and the old price of ten cents, a thin dime, for admission is what none of the other managers can fathom and ask: "How does he manage it?" Well, that is what the proprietors pay for, his management, and he does put it over every week.

The Empress has been renovated and prettily decorated, every corner and cranny swept and cleaned, garnished with new paint and gilding so that it shines as bright as a soldier's medal. Don't make a mistake when you want an hour or two of real amusement. Hit the trail for the Empress and keep abreast of the times in all the best stage stuff. None of the old-time, small-town acts get on the stage here. The act must be good and new and unquestionable in every way. It is never a cheap show, only cheap prices.

The great beauty of the Empress is the wonderful ventilating system by which it may be easily cooled and heated always with pure fresh air, the same system, in fact, as is used in the best hospitals. Remember the Empress when you are booking your best girl for an engagement. It is sure to please her as well as yourself.

Friday, Sept. 28 (matinee and night)—Double feature, the celebrated beauty of stage and screen, Gail Kane, in a new role admirably suited to her personality, "Souls in Pawn." A story of world politics and love. A soul-stirring drama in which love batters down international hatred. Also the king of comedians, Charlie Chaplin, in his newest, funniest comedy, "The Champion." A brand new comedy with a riot of fun and laughter.

Special two days, Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 29-30 (continuous 2 to 11 p. m.—no stop for supper)—The Yankee Doodle comedian, George M. Cohan, in an adaptation of his stage triumph, "7 Keys to Baldpate," a mystery farce of surprises, thrills and laughter. Also (Sunday matinee only) the most melodramatic serial play ever shown, "The Fighting Trail."

Monday, Oct. 1 (matinee and evening)—First time on the South side, Paramount Pictures presents the great character actor, George Beban, in his greatest play, "Lost in Transit," one of the best and most unusual plays written by Kathlyn Williams, teeming with romance, touched with pathos; an exhilarating love theme that will carry you spellbound to the end. The management especially recommends this play as one of the best and most elaborate productions ever shown in this theatre. Mr. Beban scores the biggest triumph in his career. Also latest News Weekly, first run, and a new parlor comedy.

Tuesday, Oct. 2—Ethel Barrymore in "The Lifted Veil." One of the most impressive scenes ever reproduced on the screen is the visualization of Hoffman's wonderful painting, "Mary Magdalene Brought Before Christ," which will be shown in the Metro wonderplay starring Ethel Barrymore, "The Lifted Veil." The picture is first seen as a stained glass window in the church where the heroine, played by Miss Barrymore, is worshipping. Impressed by the powerful sermon, and the sight of the sun breaking through the stained glass picture, the picture itself seems to assume life in her mind's eye.

Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 3 and 4 (direct from the loop—matinee and night)—Elsie Ferguson, the most beautiful artist of the American drama, makes her motion-picture debut in "Barbary Sheep." One of the most prominent exponents of the true dramatic art, Miss Ferguson brings to the screen a rare personality and adds greatly to its potency as a high-class amusement. Miss Ferguson's career on the stage started at the bottom. Through characteristic persistency and hard work she has become one of the most popular actresses of the world. Her characterizations in such well-known theatrical hits as "Shirley Kays," "Such a Little Queen," "Outcast" and "Margaret Schiller" won her particular prominence among the hearts of American theatre-goers. Also, Wednesday, Victor Moore in a new comedy. Also, Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in their latest comedy.

Coming (one day only) Friday, Oct. 5—Helen Ware in "The Garden of Allah."

Sunday, Oct. 7—Earl Williams in "Transgression." Also Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle in his new scream comedy, "Oh, Doctor!"

Wednesday, Oct. 10—Wallace Reid in "Hostage."

Special two days, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 12-13—Mary Pickford in "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm."

At the "Harvard Beautiful" Wednesday and Thursday, October 3 and 4.

At the "Harvard" Saturday and Sunday.

Parakeets Found in Thick Wood.

Parakeets usually rest in colonies and live in thick woods or cypress swamps. It is said that in an early day they were numerous along the lower Wabash, in Indiana and were found in the winter in the hollow trunks of sycamore trees in a state of semi-hibernation.

NATIONAL THEATRE

"The White Slave," with a brand new, modern production, and presented by a fine cast, will be the attraction at the National week of September 30 (next week). The story of this splendid drama has its locale in the South a few years before the abolition of slaves by President Lincoln. It is a significant fact that the recent race riots in St. Louis prove that the theme is up-to-date, though the play was originally produced in 1882, and has ever since claimed a conspicuous place in the hearts of the theatre-going public.

"The White Slave" has nothing to do with white slavery or moral degeneration in the slightest degree. It is taken from a page in American history 60 years ago, and is staged and costumed in consonance with the period it reflects. The story opens in the Blue Grass regions of Kentucky and the atmosphere of that picturesque country is reproduced with fidelity. The action is later transferred to a plantation on the bank of the mighty Mississippi river, just above Natchez. Those were the days of steamboating and a phase of this is enacted in the play. Negro life, with its infinite charm and delightful simplicity is shown on the plantation at Osceola. Here, amid the cotton fields, the darkey of bygone days is seen in his element. Happy, carefree, the cotton pickers sing the lilting melodies of the Southland and to the twanging of the banjo indulge in the characteristic dancing of the race.

Bartley Campbell, the author of the play, like Twain, spent a great deal of his life on the Western rivers and made frequent trips between Pittsburgh and New Orleans. During these journeys he gained intimate geographical knowledge of the somnolent South and the lower Mississippi valley so impressed him that he was inspired with material for the antebellum play which has been presented no less than 50,000 times in the past 35 years.

Scene From "The White Slave" Next Week.

Get "Copy" In, in Time.

All "copy," advertisements and other, must be received at this office by Wednesday night at the latest, and preferably before noon of Wednesday if special position is desired. We go to press at seven o'clock Thursday morning and the forms are locked at that time. The rest of the day is consumed in press work and preparing the papers for the mails to reach the readers early Friday morning, and we cannot receive copy later than Wednesday under any circumstance. We are sorry each week to have to refuse good matter, but we must set a time, and it is as above.

He Had No Idea.

Patient's Wife—"Do you think my husband can stand an operation?" Doctor (absently)—"My dear madam, you know his financial affairs better than I do."—Puck.

Wrote Hymn While at Sea.

"Lead, Kindly Light," one of the most beautiful and inspiring hymns, was written by Doctor Newman, when he was becalmed in an orange boat in the Straits of Bonifacio, in 1833.

Auburn Park has sent its full quota of men into service. The eight churches should average at least 45 each, not to speak of those connected in other places. Hence we figure that more than 500 go from this immediate community and twice that from only a little larger area. Several times this number may go. See to it that the "Boys" going into the army go not unnoticed, but give your help and cheer in every way possible. Soon after the 1st of October many go, and the time is short.

The grand jury returned indictments against Messrs. Brunsfield, McFarland and the bookkeeper in connection with the failure of the Auburn Savings bank. There are several counts to the indictment, the principal one being for receiving deposits knowing the bank to be insolvent. Other transactions of the firm in an insurance company are also named, and the whole matter will be thrashed out in the criminal court. Meantime the depositors will be in luck to get 40 per cent of their deposits.

Share Your Pleasures.

It has been said that happiness which has not been shared has no taste. If the pleasant things which come to you, somehow seem to have no taste, if they seem rather flavorless, perhaps this is the explanation. Put gladness into another's life, divide up the pleasures you have been selfishly enjoying, so that it will help two or three, and your happiness will have plenty of flavor.

Parentage and the State.

Parentage rightly undertaken is a service as well as a duty to the world, carrying with it not only obligations but a claim, the strongest of claims, upon the whole community. It must be paid for like any other public service; in any completely civilized state it must be sustained, rewarded and controlled. And this is to be done, not to supersede the love, pride and conscience of the parent, but to supplement, encourage and maintain it.—H. G. Wells.

Garfield W. C. T. U.

Wahwahtaysee Campfire Girls

In order to show appreciation of the loving service of their guardian, the Wahwahtaysee Campfire Girls surprised Miss Emma Wilkins on the occasion of her birthday, Saturday, September 15. Miss Ina Anderson, with congratulations, presented Miss Wilkins with a Parisian ivory clock on behalf of the girls.

Miss Wilkins was doubly pleased in that the girls had themselves prepared delicious refreshments which indicated the teaching of homecraft had been efficient.

The girls are to give an entertainment to demonstrate what they have learned of the "seven crafts" of the Campfire work Friday, November 2, at Ogden Park field house at 8:15 p. m. This activity is in response to President Wilson's request for home economies.

Mothers and fathers of girls of twelve years of age or over are especially urged to be present, as new members are always welcomed.

Englewood High School News.

The Englewood football team is busy practicing every afternoon. The coach this year is Mr. Roscoe, the new teacher in agriculture. He is giving the boys a good workout. Mr. Barnadell, the coach in former years, is not able to be with the team as his time afternoons is taken up.

A number of the stars in last year's championship team have graduated. Those who are back with the new material coming out to practice, are working up a good team.

The first practice game will occur on Friday afternoon of this week with St. Rita's Academy at 63rd and Robey Sts. The first league game is with Harrison Tech. at Harrison, on October 6.

The first Englebooster dance was held last Friday afternoon at Odd Fellow's hall. Over 500 happy Englebooster were in attendance making it the largest social affair the association has ever given. The music was furnished by Miss Carson and Mr. Bromstedt. The social committee of 30 took charge of the dance under the leadership of Robert Collins and contributed much in the success of the affair by seeing that every one had a good time.

The captain ball teams are being organized by Miss Klein. They practice on Monday and Wednesday. The heavyweight teams are: Chemistry, English, History and Physics. A determined effort is to be made to defeat the Physics team which has won the championship for six successive years.

The swimming team had its first swim at Parker high school Tuesday afternoon, September 25. About thirty boys were out for the initial swim. It is hoped that a regular team will be organized this year to compete with the teams of other high schools.

The Red Cross work will begin October 1. Every one is enthusiastic and it is evident that the work will progress even better than it did last year.

The members of the Oracle (former debating club of the Englewood high school) club are planning a mock trial to be held in Senior hall, October 25, at the close of school. The admission is free and an invitation is extended to every one.

Over 2,100 pupils are in attendance this fall at the Englewood high school while the night school enrollment is nearly 2,000.

Mr. Haddon, the popular teacher of agriculture last year, is with the army engineers at Fort Leavenworth, Kan. His place is filled by Mr. Roscoe from the University of Illinois. Other new teachers are Mr. Joseph Shine in room 36, Mr. Fischer in room 8, Miss Hurn in room 22-L, and Miss Korten in room 10-C.

Interclass basketball teams are being organized in many subjects under the direction of Mr. Percival.

ENGLEWOOD HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY.

Books and Magazines for Soldiers.

The high school library is co-operating with the other libraries of the country in the endeavor to supply the soldiers with books. All pupils are urged to bring from their own personal collections some good book which they have found enjoyable, and to give this to the collection which will be sent directly to the camps. Magazines also are acceptable for this collection provided they are not more than two months old. All pupils are urged to bring the books as soon as possible as Rockford cantonment is already calling for 25,000.

War Service.

Many in every community are anxious to serve and do not know what they can do, nor where to apply. Many, too, are seeking for a comprehensive description of the work of the nation at this time of crisis. To meet these needs the National Service handbook has been issued by the government committee on public information. The book has been sent to the libraries of the country and the high school library has two copies for circulation. All teachers, alumnae, art students, stenographers, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and all desirous of finding out how they may best serve the nation are invited to consult this book.

The high school library also desires to announce that it has recently added many new books and pamphlets on military science, good conservation, "Why We Are at War," and other pertinent subjects. It also has a large number of current magazines containing articles on these subjects now on file. E. R. PENDRY, Librarian.

Extraordinary!

"My young friends," said a member of the board of trustees, who was addressing the school, "let me urge upon you the necessity of not only reading good books, but also of owning them, so that you may have access to them at all times. Why, when I was a young man I used frequently to work all night to earn money to buy books, and then get up before daylight to read them."

Tired of the Other Kind.

From several shopping trips the members of the family had brought Ardith useful gifts, such as stockings, hair ribbons, and handkerchiefs. So last week when her parents were leaving for a trip, her mother said: "Be a good girl and we will bring you something nice. To which Ardith answered: "Don't bring cloth things this time, bring playthings."

Getting Theirs.

Marley—"Here's a prominent woman giving the bachelors an awful calldown." Meekton—"That's right. We married men oughtn't to get all the lecturing."

Coal Consumption.

Great Britain's per capita coal consumption is about three times as great as that of France.

Definition of Good Advertising.

The advertising manager of a big store gives the following as his conception of what advertising should be: "A reflection of the public's wants rather than an attempt to sell what the store wishes to dispose of. The policy should be to avoid advertising merely to correct mistakes in buying."

The society now has 400 members, and all those were urged to write a cheer-up letter for some lad at the front. Miss Margaret Sinclair of Vanderpoel Ave. sang "Keep the Home Fires Burning," and "My Own United States," and received many encores. The treat of the evening was a talk by Captain Lee of the Morgan Park military academy, who spent 27 months at the European front, and who was only released from duty when he suffered from gas bombs. Captain Lee, in relating his wonderful experiences, said "he was a soldier and not a speaker." In all of his remarks he refrained from bitterness and malice and emphasized the fact that our nation should not judge the enemy by newspaper comments. His thought in regard to the present war is that "no negotiations nor statesmanship will win the war, but that our own security will depend on our army and navy." The audience enjoyed the talk and loudly cheered the speaker, who was much embarrassed by the ovation given him. In closing he urged the women to knit stockings, but to make them fit, not stingy socks for the tall lad and generous ones for the little one.

E. A. R. THEATRE

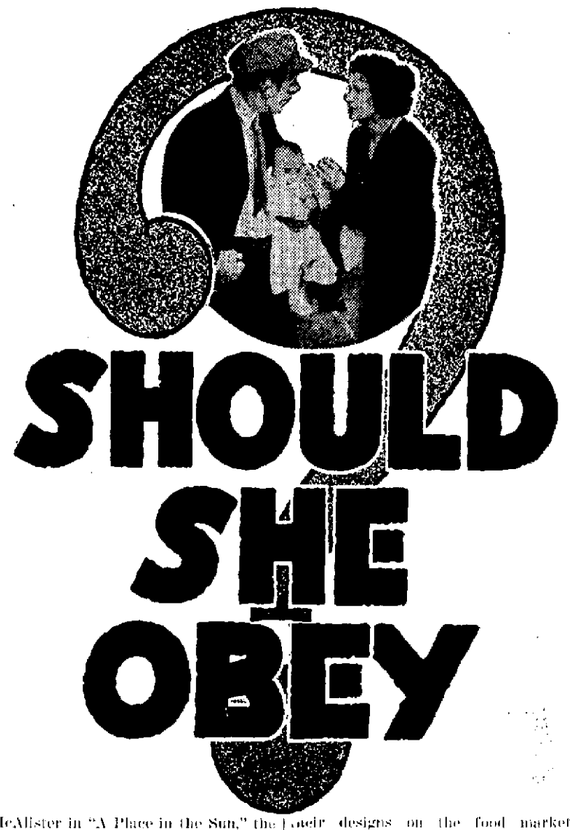
Friday, Sept. 28—Matinee and evening. Doublas Fairbanks in "Down to Earth." In this film the energetic Douglas not only excels all his previous efforts on the screen, but at the same time proves his ability as an author, in which respect he is just as distinctive as his acting. In fact, this photo play is "very much Fairbanks," so to speak, for he wrote it, enacted its principal character and even directed several of the scenes himself. "Her Fractured Voice," Paramount comedy, and Ford Weekly.

Saturday, Sept. 29—Matinee and evening. Ann Pennington in "The Little Soldier Girl." Ann Pennington of Ziegfeld Follies fame, is returning to the screen in a decidedly unique and original photoplay. This is an exceptionally timely picture, the theme of which centers around the Boy Scout organization, which is being so much discussed at this time. Little Mary McAllister in "A Place in the Sun," the fifth of the "Do Children Count?" series. Also Charles Hoyt's rip-roaring comedy, "A Runaway Colt."

Sunday, Sept. 30,—2 to 11 p. m. Myrtle Gonzalez in "The Greater Law," a gripping story of the Klondike. The call of the North beckoned Jimmie Henderson from home. His sister waited for word from him and then, bent on investigating his silence, learned, in Seattle that he had been murdered in the Klondike. Barbara Henderson set forth on a mission of vengeance, sought the truth and found in the end that her brother still lived and that nature's man had been waiting for the call of his heart in the wintry North. Barbara's mission was turned to happiness, when the parson made her the wife of a man she tried to kill when she believed him to be her brother's murderer. "A Maiden's Trust," Keystone Comedy. Also Burton Holmes' Travalogue.

Monday, Oct. 1—Mollie King in "Blind Man's Luck," a gripping story of a girl born into a family of somewhat shady connections. She hates the atmosphere of illegality, and fear of the police, in which she lives. Though innocent, she is sought by the police as an accomplice in a crime. To escape them, she is forced by a strange chain of circumstances into marriage with a wealthy young man who has been spending his time and money in folly. This is really the beginning of her adventures, and not the end. "Luke's Tin Can Alley," two-reel comedy. Also Pathe Latest News.

Tuesday, Oct. 2—Wilfred Lucas and Elda Millar in "The Food Gamblers," the most timely screen play of the moment. June Justice, reporter on the Globe, has made a sensational arraignment of several prominent business men in New York city, charging them with vicious and unlawful "food gambling" and declaring she will produce evidence branding them as traitors to their country. This dramatic statement was made by Miss Justice before the courts. She claims that the men whom she accuses conspired to imprison her on the charge of selling "dope," in order that she might not expose their designs on the food market. "His Perfect Day," Triangle comedy; and Pathe News.



Wednesday, Oct. 3—Mae Murray in "At First Sight." The story deals with the adventures of pretty Justine Gibbs, played by Mae Murray. Justine is a very attractive and highly American type of young woman, who rebels against a prearranged marriage, and follows the dictates of her heart. It is essentially a comedy, and the story is really based upon the efforts of the young woman to win the heart of a young writer, so absorbed in his work that the heroine must take him by storm. A great deal of the charm of the story lies in the quaint and humorous scenes between the absent-minded young writer and the imperious heroine. Ralph Herz in "Blood Will Tell," also "A Smoky Love Affair," Christie comedy.

Thursday, Oct. 4—Matinee and evening. "Should She Obey?" the play that startled all Chicago. It points the way to freedom from the customs of barbarism which have wrecked the lives of millions of women. It lays bare the glaring facts of poisoned marriage and divorce. It is not a sex problem play. It is a clean, forceful story from real life, revealing the actual heart-throbbing miseries of the discarded wives of millions of men. Each and every incident has had its counterpart in actual life, for we can all remember cases that are practically parallel to those presented.

Why That Lame Back?

Morning lameness, sharp twinges when bending, or an all-day backache; each is cause enough to suspect kidney trouble. Get after the cause. Help the kidneys. We Americans go it too hard. We overdo, overeat and neglect our sleep and exercise and so we are fast becoming a nation of kidney sufferers. 72% more deaths than in 1890 is the 1910 census story. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Thousands recommend them.

An Iowa Case

O. W. Emery, West Decorah, Iowa, says: "My back got so painful I couldn't sleep and I had to be propped up with pillows. The pain was terrible and it seemed as though my kidneys were being torn loose. The kidney secretions were painful in passage and I lost weight until I was a mere shadow of my former self. Doan's Kidney Pills restored me to good health and I haven't suffered since."

Into a Chicago police court a man was haled charged with the theft of an umbrella.

"What have you to say for yourself?" asked the magistrate. "Are you guilty or not guilty?"

"Well," said the accused, "I guess I am one of the guilty parties, Your Honor. The umbrella had the name of M. Barker on the handle. W. T. Morgan stamped on the inside of the cover and I stole it from this man here, whose name is Higgins."—Case and Comments.

ORCHID ICE CREAM COMMON

It Does Not Bear That Aristocratic Title but Goes by the Very Plebeian Name of Vanilla.

Very few of us would ever think of ordering orchid ice cream without a little tremor of the pocket book, for everyone knows that the orchid is the most expensive of flowers. But there are thousands of persons who eat orchid ice cream daily. Although they probably have not been aware of the distinction, it is none the less a fact. Of course the ice cream is not ordered by the aristocratic name of orchid. On the contrary, it bears the very plebeian name of vanilla.

There are said to be no less than 15,000 varieties of orchid scattered over the earth. All of them have the peculiar artificial beauty and the haunting odor that seems inseparable from this flower, which looks almost as though it were a product of an unhealthy condition in nature. Of all these 15,000 varieties, only one has any practical value, and that is the one from which vanilla comes. The plant grows abundantly in South and Central America, and has been transplanted to other tropical countries, where it is now flourishing.

Had the Pharisee.

One man who appeared for physical examination before a local exemption board recently was asked by the physician if he had ever been sick.

"Yes," said the man. "I've had the pharisee a couple of times."

Careful questioning finally brought out the fact that the man had had the pleurisy.—Indianapolis News.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

(Copyright, 1917, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 30

THE GOODNESS AND SEVERITY OF GOD.

(Review.)

LESSON TEXT—Daniel 9:3-19.

GOLDEN TEXT—The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.—Psalms 103:8.

A profitable way to spend the hour would be to make a study of Daniel's prayer as recorded in the lesson assigned for our reading today, and have the lessons of the quarter as illustrations of the goodness and severity of God. Announcement of the plan may be made the Sunday before, and the different lessons of the quarter assigned to different members of the class to tell how they bear upon the topic of the lesson for this week. A broad analysis of Daniel's prayer is as follows:

I. Confession of the Nation's Sins (vv. 3:15). The circumstances of this prayer were extraordinary. The crisis was so serious that Daniel sought after prayer to the Lord with fasting, sackcloth and ashes. In his confession the people's sins are placed in contrast with God's righteousness. He acknowledges that their sorrows and sufferings justly belong to them. Daniel, the holy man against whom there is no record of wrongdoing, includes himself with his people.

II. Supplication for Mercy and Forgiveness (vv. 16-19). He pleads for God's anger and fury to turn away, and his remembrance of the Holy City and his chosen people. The Lord's honor was at stake. He confesses that Israel had no merit, were utterly destitute of righteousness, and pleads consideration on the ground of covenant relationship.

Another way to conduct the review would be to ask different members of the class to report on the different lessons by giving the vital and central teaching of each. The following are suggested as vital teachings of the several lessons:

Lesson 1. God is absolutely holy, therefore those who have been sanctified by fire from the heavenly altar are qualified for his service.

Lesson 2. He who turns away from the Lord shall be judged by the Lord.

Lesson 3. In Hezekiah's reformatory work the Passover Feast was restored, showing that the only way to get people to return to God is to gather them around the Cross of Christ—the Atonement by Blood.

Lesson 4. Though our unfaithfulness and cowardice have shamefully humiliated us, we should turn to God in prayer.

Lesson 5. God's gracious invitation is extended to all without money and without price.

Lesson 6. No matter how wicked one may have been in his apostasy from God, if he sincerely repents, God will be found of him.

Lesson 7. Regardless of one's age and experience, God can use him in doing mighty work if he will but open his heart unto him.

Lesson 8. The Word of God found and read will mightily convict of sin, and transform one's life and environment.

Lesson 9. God's predictions as to the captivity of Israel were fulfilled to the letter. Nothing shall fail of that which God has said he will do.

Lesson 10. Jehovah is the shepherd of captive Israel, and will surely gather them out from their wanderings and save them.

Lesson 11. One should be unflinchingly loyal to God under all circumstances.

Lessons 12 and 13. God is able to deliver those who trust him, from fire and from wild beasts.

When God Probes.

God loves us too much to let what would hurt us stay with us. So, because of this love, he himself is willing to hurt us in order to save us from the greater hurt. Probing is done in order to get rid of something that would injure. And so, as Prebendary Webster has said: "Do not be afraid of God's probing. He never wounds except to heal. He never humbles except to exalt. Do let God deal with you; do not be afraid of his probing." Most of us have been afraid of it; we may be dreading it just now. We shall not fear if we remember what kind of love is back of it: that all-sacrificing love that died for us on the cross. So we can safely, gladly let ourselves go utterly into his hands and ask those nail-pierced hands to do with us what they will. Then he can begin to show us his love as we may never yet have known the meaning of love.—Sunday School Times.

Our Little Is Needed.

If only one of the million flowers that bloom in the summer days, in the fields and gardens, refused to bloom, hiding its gift of beauty, the world would be a little less lovely. If but one of the myriad stars in the heavens should refuse to shine some night, keeping its beam locked up in its own breast, the night would be a little darker. . . . It makes a vast difference in the world whether the humblest of us be true or false in our life, whether we sing our one little note right or wrong, whether we speak our one little word, or keep silent. The smallest bar of song, breathed into the world, adds its fragment to the world's music. The right thing you did yesterday made the world a little better, made it easier, too, for other people to do right.—James R. Miller.

The Real Pleasures.

God will not let us be without pleasures of our own. The fields are full of such: flowers, verdure, beautiful plants at every step; birds everywhere; and then an air all perfumed.—Eugenie de Guerin.

Need to Catch Vision of God.

When we are content to live on the lower levels of life it is because we haven't caught the vision of God.—L. K. Smith.

Martyrdom Sublime.

Christianity has made martyrdom sublime and sorrow triumphant.—E. H. Capin.

The Mother's Influence.

There never yet was a mother who taught her child to be an infidel.—Henry W. Shaw.

From Press Correspondent.

The enrollment in the evening schools is 20,132. Large classes are formed in stenography and automobile instruction for the men and the women take to dressmaking and cooking. The classes in the English branches are large, but the attendance in foreign neighborhoods is not so large as formerly, due possibly to the war and conscription.

Detectives McCabe and West arrested two auto thieves Tuesday night and compelled them to drive them to the police station. En route one of the thieves ran the auto into a 63rd St. car and tried to escape, but was shot through the jaw and recaptured. He is at the Bridewell hospital and his two companions are in jail. All of the prisoners are paroled men from the penitentiary.

Robert Barbee chased a fellow who stole his automobile in his "flivver" and caught up with him over on Loomis St., where he jumped from his machine, and running between two houses escaped. "Bob" jumped after him but too late to capture the thief. A large automatic gun was found on the seat of the car, and it is probably just as well for "Bob" that he didn't catch up with the desperado.

WOMAN SICK TWO YEARS

Could Do No Work. Now Strong as a Man.

Chicago, Ill.—"For about two years I suffered from a female trouble so I was unable to walk or do any of my own work. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and determined to try it. It brought almost immediate relief. My weakness has entirely disappeared and I never had better health. I weigh 165 pounds and am as strong as a man. I think money is well spent which purchases Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Jos. O'Bryan, 1755 Newport Ave., Chicago, Ill.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

Waited Eighteen Years for It.

Talk about the returning traveler, and how he feels his heart beat when he returns to his native shore from a long, long sojourn in a foreign land! Here's Frederick Rockwood, New Englander by birth and a resident of Bogota, Colombia, for 18 years as consul, newspaper correspondent and general agent.

He landed in this country a few days ago, perfectly tickled to death, as the girls say, to get back to the U. S. A. But did he fall down and kiss the shores or offer burnt sacrifices?

He did not.

He had been longing for a good-sized dish of corned beef hash ever since he went to Colombia 18 years ago. He had been saving up a corned beef hash appetite all these years. So when he landed the first thing he did was to go to a restaurant and order five portions of his favorite food.—Earl Goodwin in Washington Star.

PAIN? NOT A BIT! LIFT YOUR CORNS OR CALLUSES OFF

No humbug! Apply few drops then just lift them away with fingers.

This new drug is an ether compound discovered by a Cincinnati chemist. It is called freezone, and can now be obtained in tiny bottles as here shown at very little cost from any drug store. Just ask for freezone. Apply a drop or two directly upon a tender corn or callus and instantly the soreness disappears. Shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you can lift it off, root and all, with the fingers.

Not a twinge of pain, soreness or irritation; not even the slightest smarting, either when applying freezone or afterwards.

This drug doesn't eat up the corn or callus, but shrivels them so they loosen and come right out. It is no humbug! It works like a charm. For a few cents you can get rid of every hard corn, soft corn or corn between the toes, as well as painful calluses on bottom of your feet. It never disappoints and never burns, bites or inflames. If your druggist hasn't any freezone yet, tell him to get a little bottle for you from his wholesale house.—adv.

DON'T FORGET THE HORSE!

There Was Another Hero in Wild Midnight Ride of Paul Revere, Reminds a Writer.

Paul Revere's name was made immortal when he rode from Boston to Lexington and Concord, warning the patriots along the way of the British approach, and his fame has been securely enshrined in the hearts of all Americans.

Historians have honored themselves in honoring him. Poets have found inspiration in praising him. He is an idol of childhood, an example in the prime of manhood and a solacing memory of old age.

How few characters loom up like great peaks above the mountain ranges of time!

And Paul Revere was one of these. He was one of the precious few great enough to grasp an opportunity to do an incalculable good to mankind.

But while we give deserved glory to Paul Revere, let us no longer forget that there was another hero in that wild midnight ride, says a writer in the Christian Herald.

There was the horse.

"Any other horse might have done as well," you think? Well, so might any other man have done as well, perhaps. So might we flippantly disparage any hero.

But the fact remains that it was Paul Revere's horse that did it. And the harder work fell on the horse. But for the true horse's faithfulness, Paul Revere would have been a failure.

Wonderful!

"How are your nephew and his bride getting along by this time?"

"Finer than frog hair!" triumphantly replied the Missourian. "They've been married mighty nigh three weeks now, and, by cripes, they are still speaking!"—Judge.

Two of a Kind.

Among the anecdotes of old-time English actors is one of the proprietor of a London theater, who was also an actor of comic parts. On one occasion he gave a member of his company, also a comedian, the customary two weeks' notice to quit.

"Why am I dismissed?" the indignant comedian queried.

"Well, you see, Jonesey, you are a bad actor."

"So are you," was the quick retort.

"Ah!" the manager rejoined, "that's what it is, Jonesey. The public won't stand two of a kind—our kind—so one of us has to go, and I'm sure that that one isn't me."

Making It Sure.

Sound Logic.

"Mamma," said a five-year-old boy the other day, "aren't there any other senses 'cept hearing, seeing, feeling, tasting and smelling?"

"No, my child," answered the mother. "It is usually considered that these five are enough."

"Well," said the little one, with an air of deep conviction, "I s'pose talking would be called a sense if there wasn't so much nonsense about it."—Pearson's.

Barber Shops for Birds.

An Indianapolis mother tells the story of the four-year-old "pride of the household" who observed a wee bird lying on the sidewalk near their home. It was of course, without feathers, being very young, and had evidently fallen from its nest among the boughs of the oak tree above.

"Oh, muvver," said the youngster, "I didn't know they had barber shops for little birds. Look, this one has all been shaved."—Indianapolis News.

A Pacifist.

At three years old Reginald was already a celebrated coward. Particularly he was afraid of all four-footed animals. There was talk in the family of adopting a dog.

"Would you like to have a dog, my son?" said the proud parent.

"No," said Reginald.

Somewhat later Reginald returned to his father's side. Evidently he had been turning over in his mind the proposition recently submitted.

"I'd like to have a dog," said he, "if I could have one with his mouth shut."

Raise High Priced Wheat on Fertile Canadian Soil

Canada extends to you a hearty invitation to settle on her FREE Homestead lands of 160 acres each or secure some of the low priced lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. This year wheat is higher but Canadian land just as cheap, so the opportunity is more attractive than ever. Canada wants you to help feed the world by tilling some of her fertile soil—land similar to that which during many years has averaged 20 to 45 bushels of wheat to the acre. Think of the money you can make with wheat around $2 a bushel and land so easy to get. Wonderful yields also of Oats, Barley and Flax. Mixed farming in Western Canada is as profitable an industry as grain growing.

The Government this year is asking farmers to put increased acreage into grain. There is a great demand for farm labor to replace the many young men who have volunteered for service. The climate is healthful and agreeable, railway facilities excellent, good schools and churches convenient. Write for literature as to reduced railway rates to Supt. of Immigration, Ottawa, Can., or to

Good for Him.

One Indianapolis woman is in favor of the war—and what it means to certain folk. She wrote to Harry B. Smith, adjutant general, urging that "if the draft board calls for any more men, I wish you would see that they call for ——— ——— (her husband)." Then the letter gave his address and his registration number.

"He is stout and healthy and doesn't do any work, and I think it would be good for him," the letter concluded.—Indianapolis News.

THIS DRUGGIST KNOWS BEST KIDNEY MEDICINE

Gave Him Away.

Mrs. Brandyball returned home one afternoon from quite an extended visit to her old home. Among the first questions put to her maid was:

"Have you noticed that my husband missed me very much when I was away, Annie."

"Well," said Annie, "I didn't notice it so much at first, but yesterday he seemed to be in despair."

Ethel's Note.

A woman on the north side who prides herself on her social position and always insists on having perfect service in every way for any occasion, was called on recently to give a reception on very short notice to a distinguished club woman who was passing through the city, says the Indianapolis News. All three of her house servants were gone that day and only the cook was at home.

"Ethel," she requested her little five-year-old daughter, "you go to the door and usher the guests in while I finish my toilet."

At first the child objected, but finally she was persuaded to go.

The woman went on with her preparation, which was interrupted several times by bad luck, the cook, and everything else. A woman accustomed to a maid is rather helpless when it comes to dressing without one. But she heard the guests come in and take chairs in the reception room and she supposed all was well. At last she was ready.

Going to the door to find Ethel she was horrified to read this little printed note pinned to the back of a chair.

"Dere Ladies cum on in mam is upstares dresing talk and sit downe Ethel."

Never Boasts.

One of our able senators was arguing a momentous naval question with an opponent.

"You know I never boast," the opponent remarked during the argument.

"Never boast! Bully!" exclaimed the senator. Then, in a more reflective mood, he added, "No wonder you brag about it."

Undoubtedly.

"He's rich and yet he never spends any more than he has to."

"That's probably the reason he's rich."

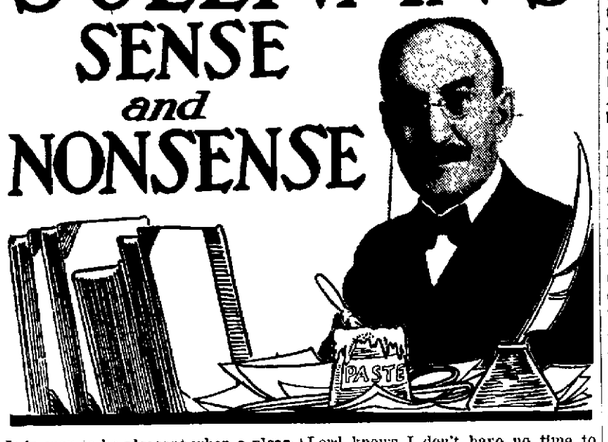
SULLIVAN'S SENSE and NONSENSE



It is easy to be pleasant when a pleasant prospect glows,
It is easy for the fellow when his pathway is of rose,
But the bravest heart that struggles on the long and weary miles.
Is the heart that's full of troubles but is also full of smiles.

Even Frank Barkey's nerve faltered when he was soliciting ads for Dollar Day, and came to the undertakers.

Casey suggested to the dainty little ladies that handle the pie department at Lipp's bakery that a customer be allowed to take a bite out of each kind of pie so they could make a selection, but they wouldn't agree, possibly noting the size of Casey's mouth.

I once distinguished myself, a good many years ago, by acting as a substitute school teacher in a country school up at Moscow, Wis. One morning one of the small boys handed me a note from his mother, which I still preserve. It read:

The Englewood "Boosters," who made trips to Elgin and Kankakee, have been congratulating themselves to be allowed to return from the homes of the insane hospitals, but my surprise is that so many of them were allowed to come back from Joliet, the home of the penitentiary.

Casey has come back from his vacation, and when I asked him about the board at the summer resort hotel, he said: "Yis, sure t'wor foine, i'specially fer a glass eater wid a circus, er fer a goat or an ostrich, but fer a hoard warkin' city polacemin it wor too sweet wuns."

"In my fertile country," said an Iowa man, "you could turn a horse into a field new mown and the next morning the grass would be grown above his hoofs." "Pooh! That's nothing," cried a Kentucky boy; "you may turn a horse into a field in our county, and not be able to see him at all next morning."

Stearns—"Did the efficiency expert that you had at your office accomplish any thing?" Burns—"Well, he made some good discoveries, but spoiled them by his recommendations. For instance, he found out that the office boy was wasting considerable time and recommended that we engage an assistant to roll his cigarettes."

The visitor was being entertained by little Tommy. "My father's a mounted policeman," said the little man, with an air of pride. "Indeed," smiled the visitor. "Is that much better than being one of the policemen who walk?" "'Corse it is!" snorted Tommy, with much contempt at the lady's ignorance. "Why, if there's any trouble he can get away so much quicker."

Casey was very proud of a huge bulldog he possessed. The dog accompanied Casey everywhere he went. One day a neighbor met Casey without the dog and looking very sad. "Well," asked the neighbor, "how is that dog of yours going on?" "Oh, he is dead! The illigant baste wint and swallowed a tape measure!" "Oh, I see! He died by inches then?" "No, indeed, he didn't; he went round to the back of the house an' died by the yard!"

"Dear Mum—Please ixcuse Johnny today. He will not be at school. He is acting as timekeeper for his father. Last night you gave him this iximple: If a field is 4 miles square, how long will it take a man, walking 3 miles an hour to walk two and one-half times around it. Johnny ain't no man, so we had to send his daddy. They left early this morning, and my husband said they ought to be back late tonight, though it would be hard going. Dear Mum, please make the nixt problem about ladies, as my husband can't afford to lose the day's work. The Lord knows I don't have no time to loaf, but I can spare a day off occasionally better than my husband can. Respectfully yours, Mrs. Jones."

A veteran recently enlisted in the army. After a week at his new quarters he was brought up before the officer commanding for not cleaning his rifle. "Hem! You're an old soldier reenlisted, I see. I suppose it has been many years since you were reprimanded? What was your last offense? Can you remember what it was?" The old soldier, with irony on account of the repeated gibes at his age, replied: "For not cleanin' me bow and arrow, sir!"

During the summer in one corner of a railway carriage sat a very little girl in charge of a nurse. The mother sat opposite, behind an illustrated paper. Suddenly there were wriggles and peevish cries, and a voice from behind the paper said: "Give it to her, nurse." Still the crying went on, and again from behind the paper came the injunction: "Oh, do let her have it, nurse; it's no use letting the child cry." Suddenly the cries rose into a howl, and the mother, appearing from behind the paper, said indignantly: "Why don't you do as I tell you, nurse? Let her have it at once!" "She's got it, ma'am. It's a wasp!"

The irritating old fool who regards himself as licensed to meddle in everybody's affairs was walking down State street the other day, when he observed a young man lounging at a corner smoking a huge cigar. "How many cigars a day do you smoke?" he asked blandly. "Six," replied the youth, as pleasantly as he could. Then the impertinent continued: "How much do you pay for them?" "Fifteen cents," confessed the young man. "Don't you know, sir," continued the sage, "that if you would save that money, by the time you are as old as I am you might own that big building at the corner?" "Do you own it?" inquired the smoker. "No," replied the old man. "Well, I do," said the young man.

The Englewood Sunday Evening Club.

It is with pleasure that we call the attention of the Englewood public to the fact that the first meeting of the season of 1917-18 of the Englewood Sunday Evening club will be held at the auditorium of the Englewood Presbyterian church, corner of Yale Ave. and W. 64th St., Sunday, October 7.

Our guest and speaker for that evening will be Mrs. Maud Ballington Booth. High among the names of women who have devoted their lives to the world-wide cause of human salvage, Mrs. Booth's name may well be said to lead. She is the originator of the Volunteer Prison league, and more than 85,000 men have ascribed their complete regeneration to the efforts of this league. National prison reforms have been promoted, and temporary homes for discharged prisoners have been acquired, equipped, and are now in operation under the management of this league. These properties, or homes, have been named "Hope halls." Homes have been established for sick, starving, helpless and blameless wives and children of prisoners, which have been named "rainbow houses." Thousands of "graduates" from these "halls" have become useful and respected citizens. Practically none have returned to crime. Hundreds today possess their own happy homes and some are now in positions of great trust and responsibility, with the record that two are today earning over $10,000 a year.

Mrs. Booth is recognized as one of the world's leading exponents of sane prison reform. Thirty-eight governors of 38 states recently petitioned the president to appoint her the American delegate to the world's prison congress.

It may be of interest to mention that Mrs. Booth is the daughter of an Episcopalian clergyman. Her maiden name was Maud Charlesworth. She is the sister of Florence Barclay, author of "The Rosary." She had every advantage in education and in her home had always before her the beautiful example of unselfish devotion to the cause of the poor and needy in the service of her father and mother in their work among the London poor. She consecrated her life to public service at the age of seventeen, working as an evangelist and missionary in England, France, Switzerland and Sweden. She, however, feels that her real life work dates from 29 years ago when she commenced her labors in this country at her husband's side. Her work in the Volunteer Prison league commenced when she and her husband severed their connection with the Salvation Army 19 years ago. That step was taken because they disapproved of much in the government, methods and measures of that organization and they have since felt that the step which was then so painful was ordained of God, especially as it enabled them to engage in the prison work which has been so abundantly blessed. An article will appear in next week's Times, giving a little more of her history.

Our soloists for the month of October are: October 7, Miss Mary Welch, contralto; October 14, Mr. Arthur Platz, tenor; October 21, Miss Margery Maxwell, soprano, and October 28, Mr. Harold D. Saurer, baritone.

Englewood Woman's Club.

The Englewood Woman's Club will open Monday, Oct. 1st with a reception and musicale. The artists will be Antonio Sala, Cellist to the Court of Spain; Cora Libberton, soprano, Chicago Grand Opera company, and Eric DeLamarter at the piano.

Hamilton Park Woman's Club.

The Hamilton Park Woman's club will present a program of "chansons vivats" on Tuesday night, October 2. The numbers will include: "The Rosary," posed by Mrs. J. H. Hunnell, with song by Mrs. W. B. Curtis and Mr. John Franzema; "Mighty Lak a Rose," Mrs. H. J. Brown, Miss Lorna Anderson; "Gypsy Love Song," Mrs. Roy Kortz, Miss Marjory Gillespie; "Juanita," Mrs. C. B Coleman, male quartette; "Annie Laurie," Miss Esther Mayes, Mrs. G. A. Long; "Land of the Sky Blue Water," Mrs. W. B. Curtis, Mrs. A. C. Mantz; "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," Mrs. E. L. Cornell, Mr. John Franzema; "Ben Bolt," Mrs. J. B. Angel, Mrs. W. B. Curtis; "Kathleen Mavourneen," Mrs. C. H. Thomas, Mrs. G. S. Steele; "Mother Machree," Mrs. R. J. McGill, Mrs. J. R. Cresswell; "Tipperary," Mrs. E. M. Kromes, Mrs. G. F. Gordon; "Silver Threads Among the Gold," Mr. and Mrs. H. C. O'Brien; male quartette; "Sweet and Low," Mrs. S. H. Van Artsdale, Mesdames W. B. Curtis, C. G. Reese and A. C. Bowman; "The Star-Spangled Banner," Mrs. Clarence Rainwater, audience. Accompanists, Mesdames James Cross, A. C. Mantz and C. H. Gillespie.

The club during the coming year will meet every Tuesday. A study period from one o'clock to 2:15 will precede the general program, which will begin at 2:30. The courses of study will fall under four general classifications: Civics, art and literature, music and education. Members may enroll for any or all of these studies, for which no charge will be made.

The course in civics will include parliamentary law, our city and its promise to democracy, speeches concerning the national defense, a symposium of courts.

The art and literature department will take up public speaking and lyric diction, specially prepared for clubwomen by a paid instructor. The art department will hold a county fair at which exhibitions of antiques and examples of domestic arts will be displayed. This feature will be a community affair and will last for two days. There will also be a pottery day with fifty or more examples of the art. A play will be given by members of the art and literature department.

The study of music will embrace the history of American music, national spirit in song, civic music, a grand opera day, tribute to MacDowell, Dalcroze eurythmics, music and its relation to education.

Education will comprise home economics, a study course of food values in relation to health.

There will be the usual "Husbands' Night," a Frolic of the Months, children's Christmas party with a play story and magician, a junior dance on New Year's eve and the May fete—Mrs. A. O. Jackson, chairman publicity committee.

Lewis-Champlin Parent-Teachers' Association.

The Lewis-Champlin Parent-Teachers' association, under the leadership of Mrs. N. Rousseau, is planning a very active year.

Having the largest membership of any Parent-Teachers' association in the city the meetings have been planned with the view of interesting and securing the active co-operation of every member.

Good speakers have been secured. Several of the lectures will be illustrated. A patriotic meeting is planned for the last week in October.

One very important feature of the association's work is the social service work under the direction of Mrs. B. F. Paine. For several years past this committee has done much work in keeping children in school by quietly aiding needy families. The association feels that this is a vital part of its work and hopes to be of even greater assistance this year.

The first meeting will be held Tuesday, October 2. Business meeting at 1:30. Program at 2:30. The Fifth grade will entertain.

Mrs. W. S. Hefferman who has charge of the educational department of the woman's committee council of national defense, and is widely known as a leader in educational thought, will be the speaker. All friends of the school are invited to attend.

The officers for the current year are: Mrs. N. Rousseau, president; Mrs. A. A. Acranath, first vice president; Mrs. L. P. Ivy, second vice president; Mrs. J. H. Ellis, third vice president; Mrs. E. G. Hutchison, recording secretary; Miss Mary Wibirt, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles F. Binney, treasurer.

FALL OPENING
LET US SHOW YOU THE NEW THINGS IN PICTURES AND FRAMES

Be a Home Soldier.

Join the Englewood battalion of Governor Lowden's state volunteers. They are training. Come join them. The board of education has opened the Normal Arts gymnasium, 68th St. and Stewart Ave., every Tuesday and Thursday evening free. No dues or fees to get this military training. The business men of 63rd St. are making arrangements for uniforms.

A mistaken conception prevails of the statutory obligation of the Illinois Volunteer Training corps. First, it must be understood that these units do not take the Haye oath, and they are not subject to national service, neither will they be called out for camp duty nor called out of Cook county. But they are the military backers of the governor to preserve law and order of the state, and take the place of the National Guards that have been taken from the state, and will receive the same rate of pay when called to active service.

The state council of defense is doing everything to make life tenable, by keeping the state free from violence and mob law. And as the number of these volunteers is limited to 6,000, it will be but a short time before this quota is filled, as many are eager to assist the governor in defending their home, state and liberty, and do not want to be classed as total slackers.

If a mob came to your home to deprive you of your rights, property or life, you then would fight, so let us get together as an organized body to defend our home and rights.

Enrollment blanks to join the I. V. T. corps can be had from any of the following, who are officers: John T. Kerwin, 6800 Union Ave.; Eugene L. Perry, 619 W. 60th St.; Robert E. Maysack, 7038 Stewart Ave.; William H. Browne, 6945 Stewart Ave.; J. W. Lester, 1312 E. 47th St.; Otto J. Banker, 7701 Union Ave.; James B. Our Paper Purely Local.

We are often compelled to refuse space for interesting items of news of a general character, but we must reserve our space for purely local matter, or at least matter that concerns our home people. We cover a large territory, from 55th St. to the south city limits and from State St. west to Marquette Pk., hence we have little space for lond-winded articles, no matter how important the subject or for items that may please certain people. We gladly give space to all local matter, personals or anything concerning our own home district or for the good of our people. All matter must be signed, not for publication, but that we may know the matter is genuine. We also ask that our writers be brief; we have no space to kill, and are compelled to condense all matter.
